Agreement

The University of California prohibits discrimination against or harassment of any person employed by or seeking employment with the University of California on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender, gender expression, gender identity, pregnancy¹, physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristics), genetic information (including family medical history), ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship, or service in the uniformed services.² This policy is intended to be consistent with the provisions of applicable state and federal laws and University policies.

University policy also prohibits retaliation against any employee or person seeking employment for bringing a complaint of discrimination or harassment pursuant to this policy, or against a person who assists someone with a complaint of discrimination or harassment, or participates in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a complaint of discrimination or harassment.

The University of California is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. The University undertakes affirmative action to assure equal employment opportunity for minorities and women, for persons with disabilities, and for covered veterans.³ Inquiries may be directed to StaffDiversity@chr.ucla.edu.

¹Pregnancy includes pregnancy, childbirth, and medical conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth.

²Service in the uniformed services includes membership, application for membership, performance of service, application for service, or obligation for service in the uniformed services.

³Covered veterans includes veterans with disabilities, recently separated veterans, Vietnam era veterans, veterans who served on active duty in the U.S. Military, Ground, Naval or Air Service during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized, or Armed Forces service medal veterans.

Privacy Notice

The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 requires the University to provide the following information to individuals who are asked to supply personal information about themselves: (1)the principal purpose for requesting and collecting the personal information on this form is to comply with applicable State and Federal laws;(2)providing the personal information is mandatory, unless otherwise noted;(3)the personal information will be kept confidential and used only in accordance with applicable laws;(4)the personal information will be given to government enforcement agencies if these agencies request such information, or as otherwise required by law;(5)individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with UC Policies and labor agreement; information can be obtained at www.chr.ucla.edu.

Background Check Notice

Please be advised that the final candidate recommended for hire into a critical (or otherwise designated) position will be required to successfully complete a background investigation. Any convictions will be evaluated to determine if they directly relate to the responsibilities and requirements of the position. Having a conviction history will not automatically disqualify an applicant from being considered for employment.
